AT WASHINGTON, D. C.

DETAILS:

This investigation was predicated on information received from Confidential Informant T-1 who advised in April, 1948, that the subject, residing at 38 Putnam Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, had applied for the position of copy reader with the "USSR Information Bulletin". T-1, who is familiar with the affairs of the USSR Information Bulletin and who has proved reliable in the past, advised that JEFFERS had discussed employment with [Redacted] of the Bulletin and [Redacted]. According to the informant, [Redacted] gave JEFFERS small reason to believe that he would be hired, but that JEFFERS went ahead to explain that he had a background of newspaper reporting, re-writing and fiction writing. JEFFERS said that conditions in the United States are such that in the American publishing industry, the excuse almost invariably given for hiring him has been that he does not have the "qualifications", thus he said the American publisher or editor need not be vulgar in telling a negro applicant the real reason for not hiring him. JEFFERS added that because the one negro newspaper for which he had worked has a progressive past, the minute negro sector of the American publishing industry discriminates against him because of his political beliefs. JEFFERS said it would be a rare opportunity for him as a negro to work for the Information Bulletin and learn the skills that are involved.

On April 16, 1948, Confidential Informant T-3 advised that a man who identified himself as LANCE JEFFERS was at the offices of the Washington Bookshop Association in Washington, D.C. At that time, JEFFERS indicated a desire to contact one, GEORGE MURPHY at the National Wallace for President Committee in New York City. Informant also advised that [redacted] of the Association, spoke with her husband on that date saying that the friend "JEFF", the writer, about whom she spoke the other day, was in the shop and wanted to come over to see the laundrees about a job. [redacted] said that JEFF was a little late as no job was open. [redacted] said maybe he could work out something with [redacted] for the summer [redacted] has Confidential Informant T-3, of established reliability, and was through active participation in the affairs of the Washington Bookshop Association, [redacted] furnished valuable information concerning the members and activities of the Association. [redacted] advised that the Association has been described by the Attorney General as being within the purview of Executive Order 9835.

According to Confidential Informant T-4, [redacted] has been a member of the Communist Party in Washington for over fourteen years and is active in many communist front organizations. Her husband operates a public laundermat in Washington.

On May 8, 1948, Confidential Informant T-2 advised that JEFFERS asked [redacted] if anything had been done about the job of copy reader for the Information Bulletin. JEFFERS explained that he had recently talked with [redacted] about the job. [redacted] said he was awaiting a reply from the Soviet Ambassador, ALEXANDER PANYUSHKIN.

WFO 100-19893

On June 2, 1948, Informant T-2 advised that JEFFERS was in Washington with a delegation to protest the Mundt-Nixon Bill which was proposed to outlaw the Communist Party. At that time, he asked [ ] if any action had been taken on his application for a job with the Information Bulletin. [ ] replied that immediate plans did not call for expansion of the force but that he would like to have JEFFERS' telephone number in case he should need him. JEFFERS furnished the number as New York City Sterling-3-2342.

b6

On June 8, 1948, Informant advised that information coming to his attention indicated that [ ] did talk with JEFFERS in New York on or about this date.

On June 21, 1948, T-2 stated that JEFFERS had decided to take the job with the Bulletin and that it was arranged that he would come to Washington on June 23, 1948 and start work on June 24, 1948.

The same informant advised on July 6, 1948 that JEFFERS inquired of the Washington Bookshop as to where he could buy a copy of the "Daily Worker" which is an East Coast Communist newspaper.

Informant also advised on July 15, 1948 that JEFFERS was in contact with the Soviet Embassy First Secretary, SERGEI R. STRIGANOV at which time the former thanked STRIGANOV for sending the copy of the magazine "Voks" to JEFFERS. JEFFERS said that he would like to discuss at sometime and comment on STRIGANOV's talk at some party concerning the negro question in America. STRIGANOV is the Cultural Attache at the Soviet Embassy.

On August 7, 1948, the informant advised that [ ] attempted to get in touch with LANCE JEFFERS but was unsuccessful. "This office has no record concerning [ ]"

b6

On August 12, 1948, T-2 advised that JEFFERS was residing at 1710 Fifteenth Street, N.W. The Cross Directory indicates that [ ] This office has no record on [ ] either.

On September 10, 1948, T-2 advised that JEFFERS stated he had a story in Foley's edition of "America's Best Short Stories" and that the book was to go on sale on September 16, 1948.

WFO 100-19893

On September 13, 1948, the same informant advised that JEFFERS had asked his wife to go to the Department of Agriculture and register him for the elementary Russian course. His wife asked him if he had found out whether it was "mixed" or not. LANCE said he was sure it would be at the Department of Agriculture.

In this connection, [redacted] of the Registrar's Office of the Graduate School of the Department of Agriculture furnished their records on January 5, 1949 which reflected JEFFERS was born on November 28, 1919, that he has four years high school and three years of college. The college education consists of pre-medical training at the University of the City of Los Angeles from 1940 to 1942 and a writing course at Columbia University in New York City in 1946. The records reflect that JEFFERS registered for a course in elementary Russian on September 13, 1948, that he is a veteran of World War II. [redacted] however, stated that JEFFERS had not presented his certificate of entitlement under the G.I. Bill and a subsequent check at the regional office of the Veterans Administration reflects that he never requested such a certificate.

On October 11, 1948, the Washington "Times Herald" reported that 24 persons were arrested on October 10, 1948 during a raid on a HENRY WALLACE Progressive Party Rally in Laborers' Hall, 500 block of New Jersey Avenue, Washington. The account indicated that seven were charged with either illegal liquor sales or operating a lottery and that 17 were charged with disorderly conduct and released on bond to appear when summoned. According to the newspaper report, the meeting was sponsored by the United Negro and Allied Veterans of America and the Veterans for Wallace. Among those charged with disorderly conduct were LANCE JEFFERS and his [redacted]

It is to be noted that the UNAVA has been cited by the Attorney General as being an organization within the purview of Executive Order 9835.

On October 11, 1948, Informant T-2 advised that JEFFERS and his wife discussed the arrest. [redacted] said that she checked into the First Precinct and was advised that they are not charged with disorderly conduct but brought in on investigation. She said she had talked to the assistant editor of the "Times Herald" to see where they had obtained their facts and that the newspaper is supposed to check their story and kill it.

WFO 100-19893

[ ] said if the "Times Herald" is wrong there may be grounds for a libel suit. She added that the Civil Rights Committee is having an organizational meeting that night at 8:00 P.M. at the Good Will Baptist Church, 16th and V Streets, N. W. [ ] said she saw LANCE's friend and he told her that [ ] (last name not mentioned) will be there that night and give them the information.

In connection with the above, Confidential Informant T-5, who is familiar with the affairs of the Communist Party in Washington, D.C., advised that LANCE JEFFERS contacted [ ] of the local Communist Party and asked [ ] if he had been to see a lawyer "on this business" (meaning the arrest). [ ] replied that he had and asked if "they" had not sent word. LANCE said that they had not. [ ] then told LANCE that [ ] was supposed to have given LANCE the word on it. LANCE asked if [ ] meant through the other guy that works at the office and [ ] then replied that [ ] was supposed to give it to LANCE directly. LANCE told [ ] that he does not know [ ]. [ ] then told LANCE, "He said that he thinks it is best for them too, you know-- for you to go ahead-- and register." LANCE said that he had wanted to get some kind of word from somebody who knew something rather than just go ahead and do it. [ ] then remarked that he would see LANCE sometime and said he would see LANCE the following night if he would be at the Civil Rights Congress affair at the Masonic Hall. LANCE said that he did not plan to be there and asked who would speak. [ ] said it would be a Civil Rights Congress mass meeting and that [ ] would speak. LANCE said that he had forgotten all about this and had made other plans but that he would like to buy a couple of tickets anyway "just so as to be loyal."

LANCE then asked [ ] why he and his wife did not come over to see him. Upon [ ] statement that he did not know how he would be on getting out, LANCE suggested that perhaps he could drop by [ ] house. He said he would give [ ] a ring the following week and maybe they could plan it for the next week-end.

b6

In view of the above conversation, it is believed that [ ] referred to [ ] in the previous conversation. [ ]

It is to be noted that [ ] of the "Daily Worker" described above, and according to T-4, is a national committeeman of the Communist Party.

WFO 100-19893

[redacted] is [redacted] of the United Negro and Allied Veterans of America.

b6

With regard to the meetings of the Civil Rights Congress, described above, it is to be noted that this organization has been cited by the Attorney General as within the purview of Executive Order 9835, describing subversive organizations.

Records of the Metropolitan Police Department, Washington, D.C. were checked on January 6, 1949 by Special Employee [redacted]. They reflect that JEFFERS was arrested on October 10, 1948 for investigation and released. He was given Police Department No. 21582. Records reflect that he was born November 28, 1919 at Fremont, Nebraska.

Police records on [redacted] reflect her full name as [redacted]

b6

On October 13, 1948, Informant T-2 said that a friend of JEFFERS whom he called [redacted] told JEFFERS he was in town until Friday in connection with a meeting here of the National Council of Negro Women. It was arranged that he would call on JEFFERS after 6:00 P.M.

By letter dated December 2, 1948, the New York Office advised the Washington Field Office that New York Informant T-6 on December 23, 1947 furnished that office with a copy of the monthly dues collection lists for the International Workers Order Lodge 737 for the month of December, 1946 and that on this list appeared the name of LANCE JEFFERS, born 1919.

That office also advised that New York Informant T-7 informed on May 28, 1947 that LANCE JEFFERS conferred with LILLIAN GATES, assistant Legislative Director, New York State Communist Party, at which time JEFFERS stated he wanted to get a job through her husband, JOHN GATES (editor of the "Daily Worker"). GATES told him that she wanted to see him to discuss tenant's business but that he should contact JOHN GATES directly concerning a job.

According to reference letter, in the "Daily Worker" issue for January 19, 1947, page 3, column 5, appeared an advertisement of "Main Stream" the new Marxist literary quarterly. Listed as one of the writers for this issue was LANCE JEFFERS, author of a story entitled, "The Dawn Swings In." This was the 1947 winter edition.

Further, the records of Special Squad #1, Bureau of Special Services and Investigations, New York City Police Department, reflect that LANCE JEFFERS, negro, was industrial secretary of the National Urban League of New York City; also that LANCE JEFFERS, negro, well known poet and communist, was one of the members of the emergency committee and rent and housing of the Bedford Veterans Association, American Veterans Committee.

A report of the Credit Bureau, Washington, D.C., dated November 17, 1948, reflects that JEFFERS has been in the employ of the USSR Information Bulletin since June 24, 1948 and that his wife is unemployed. According to this report, his wife has resided in Washington since July, 1943 however his former address was given as mentioned above.

A check of the Foreign Agents Registration Section of the U.S. Department of Justice revealed that JEFFERS has not registered under the Act. According to [redacted] of the Foreign Agents Registration Section of the Department, JEFFERS would not be required to register unless he exercised some control as opposed to a clerical position at the USSR Information Bulletin.

PURPOSE

This memorandum has been prepared in order that Liaison can advise the State Department of instant investigation.

BACKGROUND

An investigation has been instituted by the Washington Field Office concerning the activities of Lance Jeffers, an employee of the Soviet Embassy as a copy reader at the "USSR Information Bulletin," 2112 Massachusetts Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C. Jeffers has been employed in this capacity since June 24, 1948, and presently resides at 1710 15th Street, N. W., Washington, D. C.; previous to this employment in Washington, he resided in New York City.

A trash coverage on the headquarters of the IWO in New York City advised that Lance Jeffers was a member of Lodge 737 in New York City of the International Workers Order in December, 1946.

Through a technical surveillance on Ben's luncheonette, it was ascertained that on May 28, 1947, Lance Jeffers conferred with Lillian Gates, Assistant Legislative Director, New York State Communist Party, and stated that he wanted to get a job through her husband, John Gates, (editor of the "Daily Worker").

Records of the Metropolitan Police Department reflect that Lance Jeffers and [Redacted] were arrested October 10, 1948, for investigation when attending a Progressive Party rally in Laborer's Hall Washington, D. C., but were released. According to a newspaper account, the meeting was sponsored by the United Negro and Allied Veterans of America, jointly with the Veterans for Wallace.

A technical surveillance on the Soviet Embassy revealed that subsequent to this arrest, Lance Jeffers contacted [Redacted] of the Communist Party in the District of Columbia, and discussed the problem of obtaining an attorney in connection with his arrest.

Jeffers was born November 28, 1919, and is colored.

This same informant also advised that on March 12, 1949, [ ] of the Civil Rights Congress, talked with Jeffers concerning JEFFERS' discharge. JEFFERS said "opportunism has risen its head in the last place where he expected it to" according to Informant.

b6

JEFFERS also indicated that he was very surprised that un-named individuals would take the position that they did.

In connection with the same matter, Confidential Informant T-2, who is of known reliability and who is familiar with the affairs and contacts of [ ] advised on March 14, 1949, that JEFFERS had introduced himself to [ ] stating that he did not know [ ] but desired to see him on an urgent matter. Informant stated that [ ] said he did not want to get involved with something not his business, but JEFFERS said it was very much his business so [ ] agreed to see him. (S) (U)

JEFFERS wanted [ ] to see a letter or statement which the former had submitted to an unstated place so that [ ] would be sure and get the facts accurate, inasmuch as JEFFERS anticipated unfavorable rumors concerning himself. JEFFERS said his point was that this (apparently meaning his discharge) was a case of national oppression and that [ ] had a stake whether he wanted or not, to which [ ] agreed. Informant indicated that [ ] kept reiterating his position that he did not want to become involved in the matter as he desired to be in a position where he could approach it objectively; however, JEFFERS insisted that [ ] accept the document and the latter finally said he would withhold judgement until he saw it. (S) (U)

The conversation continued in a cryptic manner with JEFFERS explaining that the un-named matter was not "anti-business" but local opportunism, further that he did not want any rumors going against him or against the other country (probably Russia). (S) (U)

Informant subsequently advised that on March 16, 1949, JEFFERS was in the office of [ ] and gave him the aforementioned document which the informant did not see. Informant did learn, however, that JEFFERS wanted to get the document back within one or two days and [ ] indicated he would take it to his home where he would study it and make notes. (S) (U)

[ ] also suggested that JEFFERS talk to a friend of the former in New York so that the un-named matter would not be left in the air. (S) (U)

Reference is made to the report of SA [redacted] in instant case, made at Washington, D.C. on August 2, 1949. b6 b7C

The following is submitted with the request that the Bureau give consideration to authorizing an interview with the subject with a view to determining whether or not the employees of the "USSR Information Bulletin" are engaging in espionage activities and/or developing him as an informant.

As you know, the subject was employed by the Soviet Embassy as a copy-reader at the offices of the Bulletin from 1948 to March, 1949. His address, which is presently being verified by the New York Office, is believed to be 1445 Castleton Avenue, Port Richmond, Staten Island, N.Y. His present occupation is unknown but he has been a railway porter, a laboratory technician with the NYA, garage attendant, a pre-medical student at the University of California, an officer in the U.S. Army in World War II, a reporter and a poet.

JEFFERS is a negro and is married (not verified) [redacted]

[redacted] until their departure from this city in March, 1945. b6 b7C

It is not known for how long or with complete certainty that JEFFERS has been a member of the Communist Party. Records of the New York Police Department reflect that he is a communist and he was a contributor in 1947 to "Main Stream", a Marxist literary quarterly. When in Washington, he was in contact with [redacted] known communist and [redacted] of the DAILY WORKER.

~~DECLASSIFIED~~

There is no information in the possession of this office indicating Party membership on the part of his wife but as noted above, she was employed by an organization cited by the Attorney General as within the purview of Executive Order 9835, describing subversive organizations.

As reflected in referenced report, JEFFERS was discharged from his position with the "Bulletin" on about March 11, 1949. Information from Washington National Defense Informant [ ] revealed that JEFFERS said with regard to his discharge that "opportunism has risen its head in the last place he expected it to". Informant [ ] reported that JEFFERS felt he had been done an injustice. Also Confidential Informant [ ] has recently advised that he was told by [ ] employee of the "Bulletin" that JEFFERS and [ ] of the "Bulletin" and long-time communist, had had words and that JEFFERS thought that [ ] was prejudiced towards negroes. This informant did not know whether JEFFERS was fired or whether he quit but said that he left without saying good-bye to anyone.

b2
b6
b7C

Referenced report also reflects that JEFFERS went to some length in an apparent attempt to keep his name clear with the Party by submitting a statement in his defense to [ ] mentioned above. [ ] advised that JEFFERS also had sent two communications to Soviet Ambassador ALEXANDER S. PANYUSHKIN and had requested an interview with him.

b2
b7C

The above of course does not reflect any strong feeling of hostility on the part of the subject towards the Party and the Soviet Government. However, it is believed that he may have come to feel even more that he has been the victim of an injustice as he apparently will not be received by any member of the Soviet Embassy. If so and if he is willing to discuss the matter with the FBI, he would be in a position to furnish considerable information regarding the activities of the "USSR Information Bulletin" and the Communist Party.

Reference is made to the attached communication dated August 17, 1949, from the Washington Field Office requesting authority to interview the captioned individual.

It is noted that the purpose of the interview is in order to develop information concerning employees of the USSR Information Bulletin engaging in espionage activities and/or to develop Jeffers as a confidential informant.

On the basis of SAC Letter No. 55 it is not believed that the Internal Security Section can justify granting authority to interview Jeffers. He does not appear to fit the qualifications as laid down for security subjects. It is additionally noted that the WFO desires to interview him for espionage information.

ACTION:

It is recommended, therefore, that this matter be referred to the Espionage Section to determine whether or not Jeffers should be interviewed and in order that the WFO may be appropriately advised as to their question.

Purpose:

To recommend that the Washington Field Office be advised that authority is declined for an interview with this subject.

Background:

This investigation was initiated in January, 1949 based upon information to the effect that the subject was employed as a copy reader at the USSR Information Bulletin in Washington, D. C. Investigation since that time has revealed that he was born in Nebraska in 1919, attended three years of college at the University of California, also studied in State College (apparently California) and served in the United States Army attaining the rank of First Lieutenant. Jeffers is a negro.

Records of the New York Police Department reflect that he is a Communist although this could not be substantiated by Bureau investigation. It has been determined that he was in 1947 a contributor to "Main Stream", described as a Marxist Literary Quarterly. He is known to have been in contact in Washington with [redacted] a known Communist and [redacted] of the Daily Worker.

Jeffers's wife has in the past been employed in the Office of the Civil Rights Congress in Washington, D. C.

(S) Jeffers was discharged from his position with the USSR Information Bulletin on March 11, 1949, for reasons not known to the Bureau. He had originally been employed by the Bulletin in approximately May, 1948. It has been determined that he was considerably disgruntled as a result of the loss of his position, felt that he had been done an injustice and expressed the opinion that [redacted] was prejudiced toward negroes. A confidential source has indicated that [redacted] and Jeffers "had had words". The confidential source is [redacted]

It has also been determined through a confidential source that Jeffers made two efforts to obtain an interview with the Soviet Ambassador. As far as the informant has observed, those attempts were unsuccessful. Confidential source is [redacted]

RECORDED - 133 100-359726-11

The Washington Field Office has requested authority to interview the subject with a view toward determining whether the employees of the Information Bulletin are engaging in espionage activities and for the further purpose of developing him as an informant.

WAS:dhb

~~SECRET~~

Status:

Pending.

Recommendation:

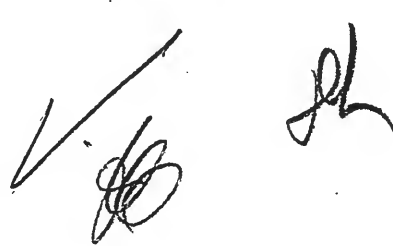

It is recognized that available information indicates that Jeffers is antagonistic toward the management of the Information Bulletin as a result of his discharge and it is considered highly probable that ~~as~~ he was incensed toward the Soviet Embassy for the same reason. However, the following considerations are made.

(1) Although Jeffers has not been proven by independent investigation by the Bureau to be a member of the Communist Party, nevertheless it is believed significant that such an allegation is contained in the files of the New York Police Department, that Jeffers has been in friendly contact with the Washington representative of the Daily Worker, that he has contributed to "Main Stream" and that his wife was employed in Washington by an organization cited by the Attorney General as with the purview of Executive Order 9835.

(2) It is considered extremely doubtful that one employed in the position of copy reader in the Information Bulletin would be in a position to know of any espionage activities being conducted by employees of the Bulletin. As a matter of fact, it is also considered extremely doubtful that the Bulletin employees are themselves engaged in espionage as no allegation to that effect has been received and the nature of their work is not such as to provide a good cover or opportunity for espionage activities. It is believed that little information of value concerning the activities of the Soviet Embassy or the Information Bulletin could be obtained from him.

(3) Even though Jeffers may be incensed against the Embassy and the Information Bulletin there is no reason to believe that he possesses a similar attitude toward the Communist Party, or to believe that he is in a position to furnish worthwhile information concerning Communist activities.

Because of the foregoing considerations, it is recommended that the Washington Field Office be instructed not to interview Jeffers. An appropriate letter to Washington Field is attached for your approval.

INFO/REPTED JEFFERS, WAS.
SAC, FBI INTER - C
Bureau File 100-359726 - 11

RECORDED - 133

Reference is made to your letter dated August 17, 1949 in which you request authority to interview the captioned subject.

Although it is recognized that information reported by your office indicates that Jeffers possesses a hostile attitude toward the Information Bulletin and may possess such an attitude toward the Soviet Embassy, nevertheless it is not felt that there is any indication that he possesses such an attitude toward the Communist Party. It is also considered extremely doubtful whether he is in a position to provide, should he care to, significant information concerning either the activities of the Soviet Embassy and the Information Bulletin, or the activities of the Communist Party. Therefore, the Bureau feels that authority to interview him should be withheld until information is developed indicating that he is hostile toward the Communist Party. In the event such information is developed, you should again submit your suggestions.

PURPOSE:

To advise that San Francisco is operating a very good informant, [REDACTED] in the professional section of the Communist Party,

b6

[REDACTED] is also furnishing information to the San Francisco Office at this time.

DETAILS:

The Washington Field Office in January, 1949, initiated an investigation of Lance Flippin Jeffers, Negro, in view of his employment as a copy reader at the USSR Information Bulletin in Washington, D. C. Jeffers began his employment by the Bulletin in approximately May, 1948, and was discharged on March 11, 1949, for unknown reasons. His wife has been employed in the office of the Civil Rights Congress in Washington, D. C., and both he and his wife were arrested on October 10, 1948, during a raid on a Henry Wallace Progressive Party Rally in Laborers Hall, 500 block of New Jersey Avenue, Washington, D. C., when seven of the individuals arrested were charged with either illegal liquor sales or operating a lottery. The meeting was sponsored by the United Negro and Allied Veterans of America and the Veterans For Wallace. Jeffers and his wife were charged with disorderly conduct. The investigation of Lance Flippin Jeffers revealed that he was born November 28, 1919, at Fremont, Nebraska, and after attending Santa Rosa Junior College, Santa Rosa, California, and the University of San Francisco, studied at San Francisco State College from September 16, 1939, to May 24, 1940. He attended the University of California from August, 1940 to May, 1941, when he was dismissed for scholastic deficiency.

His Army record, checked by the St. Louis Division, revealed that he enlisted at San Francisco on January 13, 1942, as a private and after being honorably discharged on November 24, 1942, accepted a commission as second lieutenant. He was demobilized on January 22, 1946, and received an honorable discharge as first lieutenant. His activities from that time until his employment for the USSR Information Bulletin have not been definitely established, though the records of the New York City Police Department reflect that he is a Communist and in 1947, contributed to "Main Stream," a Marxist literary quarterly.

He was last known to be residing at 1445 Castleton Avenue, Fort Richmond, Staten Island, New York. A lead is outstanding to the New York Office in his security case to verify his address.

The background [redacted] since his college days in the San Francisco area does not reveal any Communist Party connections up to the time he left that area and his subsequent Army service terminated in 1946. Since his discharge from the Army in January, 1946, his activities are not too well known until his appearance in Washington, D. C., and employment by the USSR Information Bulletin in May, 1948. It is believed that an intensive inquiry should be made into the activities of Lance Flippin Jeffers and his wife from the time of his discharge from the Army to 1948 to obtain a better picture of the attitude of him and his wife on Communist and related matters.

During the time of the residence of Jeffers and his wife in Washington, D. C., there is ample evidence indicating that they were sympathetic to the Communist cause. The inquiries concerning Mr. and Mrs. Lance Jeffers should be conducted with the thought in mind of using them as informants if such may be possible and if not as informants, to definitely determine that they are not attempting through some devious means to infiltrate the Bureau.

RECOMMENDATION:

There is attached an appropriate letter to the New York Division, copies to San Francisco and Washington Field, directing that inquiries concerning Lance Jeffers and his wife be intensified so the Bureau will have an accurate and current picture of Mr. and Mrs. Lance Jeffers in order to make a determination in the near future as to whether or not they can be used as informants and also to determine [redacted]
